CARTE POSTALE.

Tigre Hotel Buenos Aires, a city and port of Argentina and capital of the Republic, on the west shore of the La Plata estuary, about 155 miles above its mouth and 127 miles west by north from Monte Video. The estuary at this point is 24 miles wide and so shallow that vessels enter the docks only through artificial channels, kept open by constant dredging. The city is well laid out, and there are several wide boulevards and a dozen fine squares.
